

The Glenside Color Computer Club, Inc.

Greetings!

The Glenside Color Computer Club, Inc. is a not-for-profit organization established to assist its members in the learning and the better understanding of Tandy's Color Computer. In the pursuit of that goal, we have been privileged to host, under the auspices of Falsoft Publishing, five Chicago Rainbowfests and the first CoCoFEST!, sponsored by CoCoPRO!. Since 1992, we have organized AND sponsored the "Annual 'Last' Chicago CoCoFEST!"s, which have been held in the Chicago-land area, specifically, the City of Elgin, Illinois. During that event, door prizes were given away as promotional items. This year, GLENSIDE will again sponsor the show close to the same location on May 19th & 20th, 2012, and we would like to continue the tradition of presenting door prizes, but we need your help to do so. In the accompanying "Terms & Conditions", you will note that there is a section requesting a donation to the "pot" or "kitty", as it were, from the participating exhibitors. We would ask that you give some consideration to this request in the light that the publicity garnered from the announcement made at the time of the drawing could heighten the recognition of your name in the minds of the attendees.

All drawings for these donated items will be from a common collection of admission pass stubs only and will be for the benefit of the donor and the recipient. There will be no other raffle drawings by GLENSIDE utilizing the donated items.

If you wish your donation to be used as part of the Grand Prize to be distributed on Saturday, please signify so at the time of donation. Donors will receive recognition in the form of a letter of receipt from the Glenside Color Computer Club, Inc. upon request.

Please send all donations and donation forms to:

Donations MUST be received by March 31, 2012, in order that all prizes and vendors can be properly credited.

Thank you for your time, and for your support of the CoCo Community, in the past, in the present, and in the future.

Best Regards,

Sponsor reserves the right to offer special prices to clubs or other "support" organizations if space is available. Neither the Sponsor, nor its representatives, shall be held responsible for any injury, loss or damage that may occur to Exhibitor, Exhibitor's Employees or Exhibitor's property. Under NO circumstances shall Sponsor be liable for lost profits, incidental, or consequential damages. Exhibitor shall obtain, at its own expense, adequate insurance against such injury, loss or damage. Exhibitor is, at all times, responsible for its own goods and materials and should insure it against loss or damage from any cause, whatsoever. Sponsor reserves the right to alter the size of booths in accordance to space availability or restrictions.

The 21st Annual "Last" Chicago CoCoFEST! is a production of The Glenside Color Computer Club, Inc., hereinafter referred to as GLENSIDE. GLENSIDE assumes no liability whatsoever against loss or damages of any kind that may be incurred by attendees of this event. Solicitation for business of any kind within the Exhibition and Seminar areas, with the exception of business conducted by the Exhibitors listed in this publication, is strictly prohibited. GLENSIDE expressly reserves the right to eject any attendee of this show, without refund of admission price, for conduct detrimental to the good of the exhibition, as determined solely by an appointed official representative of GLENSIDE.

This contract shall be governed by the laws of the State of Illinois.

The Sanity Clause

In the event that the party of the first part or the party of the second part should be declared to be insane, this agreement will be deemed to be null and void. This legal condition is known to be the Sanity Clause, but since EVERYBODY knows that there is no Sanity Clause, this clause is superfluously extraneous and should be stricken from the record. It is being left in as a tribute to those great men of comedy, Gummo, Zeppo, Harpo, Chico and Groucho. Hurray for the elephant in my pajamas!!! Next year we will goto Alabama because the Tuskaloosa there.
